

Northern California Innocence Project 2017 Justice for All Awards Dinner

FACT SHEET

Join the Northern California Innocence Project (NCIP) at our Justice for All Awards Dinner, where we honor individuals for their dedication to freeing the wrongfully convicted and to reforming the criminal justice system.

2017 Host Committee (in formation)

The Frank and Denise Quattrone Foundation;
Denise Foderaro and Frank Quattrone
Jim Anderson, Foundation Capital
Lindsay Andrews, Sard Verbinen & Co
Obie Anthony, Exoneree
Margalynne Armstrong, Santa Clara Law
Jason Bussey, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, LLP
Franky Carrillo, Exoneree
Don Dodson, Santa Clara University
Rhonda Donato, Solutus Legal Search

Paul Grewal, Facebook
Nancy Heinen, SV2 Social Venture Fund
John Hollway, Quattrone Center for the Fair Administration of Justice
Ellen Kreitzberg, Santa Clara Law
Ronnie Lott, Former 49er and Champion Charities
Barmak Meftah, AlienVault
Elliott Peters, Kecker, Van Nest & Peters, LLP
Rick Walker, Exoneree
Elizabeth Zitrin, World Coalition Against the Death Penalty

Thursday March 2, 2017

6:00pm-9:00pm

Pullman San Francisco Bay Hotel
(Formerly Sofitel Hotel)
223 Twin Dolphin Drive
Redwood City, CA 94065

Table Sponsorships
$5,000-$50,000

Left Photo (from left) Exoneree Franky Carrillo, Jr. poses with San Francisco 49ers Champion Ronnie Lott and Leadership Award recipient Elizabeth Zitrin. Right Photo: NCIP Supervising Attorney Paige Kaneb presents exoneree Maurice Caldwell with the Cookie Ridolfi Freedom Award. Photos: Greg Pio

2017 Justice for All Honorees

Cooley LLP, John Dwyer, Partner in Charge: Cooley LLP has shown a steadfast commitment to public service. Under the leadership of Partner in Charge John Dwyer, Cooley has made exceptional contributions to NCIP's work on cases, amicus briefs, litigation and contributions to other critical NCIP initiatives.

Karyn Sinunu-Towery and Don Anders: After retiring from their successful careers as prosecutor and deputy police chief respectively, Karyn Sinunu-Towery and Don Anders have generously dedicated extensive time and talent to NCIP, working to exonerate innocent NCIP clients. They have also advocated for policy initiatives to protect the innocent and helped raise public awareness of wrongful convictions.

Luther Jones, Exoneree: Luther Jones was exonerated in February 2016 after 20 years in prison, wrongfully convicted. His story of exoneration, release and compensation encapsulates many aspects of the challenges of wrongful conviction and importance of innocence work.

Please contact Todd Fries at tfries@scu.edu or 408-554-4790 for more information.
For table or ticket purchases visit www.justiceforalldinner.com.

Northern California Innocence Project 2017 Justice for All Awards Dinner

TESTIMONIALS

"[The] entire event was a first class affair. One engaging and powerful speaker after another – [I] truly cannot recall many other fundraising dinners as memorable and impactful – and I've been to a lot."

"I was really blown away by the magnitude of this event. It was very inspiring."

"Sitting with an exoneree at our table and personally seeing the impact the event had on him really made me appreciate the content more. It was truly an emotional evening."

"I'm always amazed and humbled when I hear about the people who are involved in this work."

"The event was very inspirational."

"One of the best events we attend over the year!"

"The presentations and videos were excellent and informative. The speakers were all engaging and told many moving stories. The presence of the exonerees made the event very meaningful."

"The compelling stories; extremely emotional in a good way: it brought the issues to life."

"Fantastic, inspiring event!"

"Food was great, reception was fun, and the program was smooth and entertaining. Very well-oiled, very well done."

"A very enjoyable evening from start to finish. Well-paced and interesting - and I have been to many similar events."

"The Northern California Innocence Project is amazing! The commitment, care, and attention from everyone involved is phenomenal."

"The people, the food, the drinks, and the feeling that changes CAN be made helps me feel more hopeful about the world!"

Top: NCIP exoneree Maurice Caldwell greets the crowd after accepting the 2016 Cookie Ridolfi Freedom Award. Center: Exonerees reunite before the Justice for All Awards Dinner. Bottom: NCIP Executive Director Hadar Harris presents Dean Strang with the 2016 Champion of Justice Award.

Northern California Innocence Project 2017 Justice for All Awards Dinner

SPONSORSHIP

Photos: Greg Pio

$50,000 Liberty Sponsor

Tax deductible amount: $47,500

- Two reserved tables of 10 with premiere seating
- Podium recognition at the event; listing and two full-page ads in the printed program
- Prominent recognition on event-printed materials and on the Northern California Innocence Project's Justice for All Dinner website and promotional mailings

$10,000 Leadership Sponsor

Tax deductible amount: $8,750

- One reserved table of 10
- Acknowledgement at the event; listing and half-page ad in the printed program
- Prominent recognition on event-printed materials and on the Northern California Innocence Project's Justice for All Dinner website and promotional mailings

$25,000 Visionary Sponsor

Tax deductible amount: $23,750

- One reserved table of 10 with premiere seating
- Podium recognition at the event; listing and full-page ad in the printed program
- Prominent recognition on event-printed materials and on the Northern California Innocence Project's Justice for All Dinner website and promotional mailings

$5,000 Leadership Sponsor

Tax deductible amount: $4,375

- Five tickets to the event
- Acknowledgement at the event; listing and quarter-page ad in the printed program
- Prominent recognition on event-printed materials and on the Northern California Innocence Project's Justice for All Dinner website and promotional mailings

Please contact Todd Fries at tfries@scu.edu or 408-554-4790 for more information.

For table or ticket purchases visit www.justiceforalldinner.com.

Left: NCIP Legal Director Linda Starr presents the 2016 Pro Bono Award to Simpson Thacher Partners Jason Bussey and Patrick King. Center: San Francisco 49ers Champions Harris Barton and Ronnie Lott share a laugh with the crowd. Right: Witness to Innocence Director Magdaleno Rose Avila presents the Leadership Award to NCIP advisory board member Elizabeth Zitrin.

Northern California Innocence Project
2017 Justice for All Awards Dinner

RESERVATION FORM

Firm/Business: _____
Contact Name: _____
Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
Work Phone: _____ Fax: _____
Mobile Phone: _____ Home Phone: _____
Email address: _____

Yes! We will support the Northern California Innocence Project's 2017 Justice for All Awards Dinner:

- Liberty Sponsor ($50,000) Leadership Sponsor ($10,000)
 Visionary Sponsor ($25,000) Advocate Sponsor ($5,000)
- I/We cannot attend but would like to contribute $_____ to help exonerate wrongfully convicted prisoners.
 I/We would like to pledge $_____ each year for 3 years. My first payment is enclosed.

Payment Information

(Payment must be received by December 23, 2016, to be listed as an Early Sponsor on promotional materials)

- Check enclosed (Please make checks payable to the Northern California Innocence Project)
 Charge my:
 Visa MasterCard Discover American Express
- Card No.: _____ Security Code: _____ Exp. Date: _____
Cardholder's Name: _____
Cardholder's Signature: _____
Credit Card Billing Address: _____
City/State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Seating will be assigned by sponsor or table category and date of payment. The Northern California Innocence Project at Santa Clara University is a charitable organization designated as tax-exempt under IRS Code section 501 (c)(3). Federal Tax ID # 94-1156617.

*Please contact Todd Fries at tfries@scu.edu or 408-554-4790 for more information.
For table or ticket purchases, visit www.justiceforalldinner.com, or fax this completed form to 408-554-5440.*